

Feedback from students

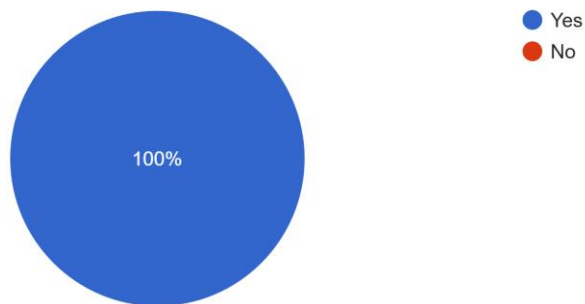

The training is conducted as per the syllabus.

44 responses

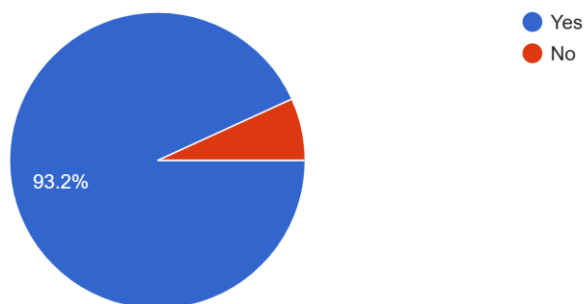

The teaching faculty seems knowledgeable, experienced and cooperative.

44 responses

The classes are held regularly as per the time table.

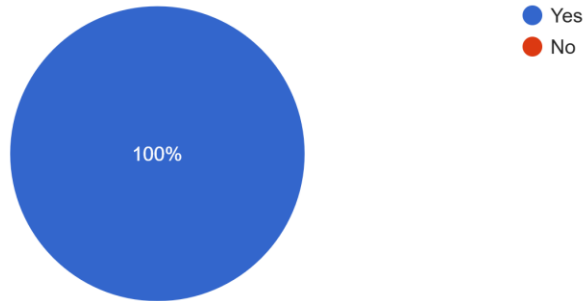

44 responses

Feedback from students

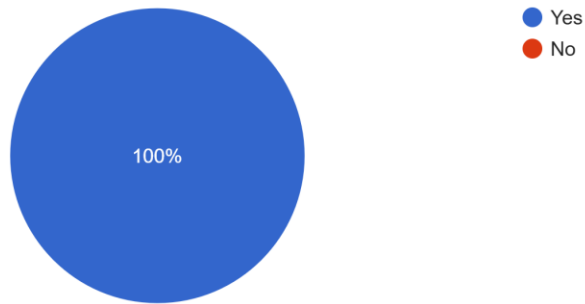

The training provides industry exposure through field visits, internships in schools and other organisations, and lectures and interactions with visiting faculty.

44 responses

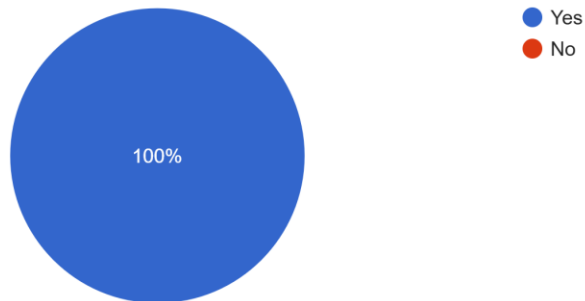

The training provides opportunities for hands-on, practical experience in classrooms, observations and interactions with autistic individuals and their families.

44 responses

Involvement in extra curriculum activities, celebrations, cultural events, and awareness campaigns were meaningful and learning opportunities.

44 responses

Feedback from students

Resources in the library, handouts and other reading material provided was contemporary and updated.

44 responses

