Free Medical Camp at Ananda

Event date: 22 January 2017

As a part of our community services, a free medical camp was organised at Gairatpur bas village, Gurgaon in partnership with Shree Guru Gobind Singh Tricentenary University and SGT Medical College Hospital and Research Institute. Medical consultation was also provided by Dr Geeta Kampani a parent and long-time supporter of AFA with her team. About 200 villagers were benefited from this free medical camp and everybody got a medical card for free treatment at SGT Medical College Hospital and Research Institute for one year.
